A ROARING GOOD TIME

Our Great Gatsby Senior Prom was such a memorable and exciting experience for our residents and family members!

Thank you to Elara Caring, Allegiance Home Health, & Lamm for the wonderful donations for this event!

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Laura Jolly Cook

Ms. Laura has been with The Vermilion for 15 years. She is always going the extra mile for our residents, by fixing their coffee just right, their breakfast exactly how they like it, and making the best rice dressing! Thank you Ms. Laura for all you do!

RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Katherine Richardelle

Ms. Katherine was born in June 1936 to her parents Mr. & Mrs. Hector Curole in Golden Meadow, Louisiana.

She was married to Eunice "EJ" Richardelle for 66 1/2 years. Together they had 3 children, Cheryl Ann, Jimmy and Darryl, 2 grandchildren, Danielle and Sydney, and 2 great grandchildren, Alex and Cole.

Ms. Katherine worked as an accountant for many years. Some of Ms. Katherine's favorite past times included going to the casino, cooking, playing bingo, and reading. Ms. Katherine currently enjoys playing bingo, doing word puzzles, and listening to music.

Her advice to the younger generation is to always do what you think is right and be good!

Congratulations Ms. Katherine as being selected as our resident of the month!

DONUTS WITH DADS

Happy Father's Day to the wonderful dads of The Vermilion! We celebrated with delicious donuts and their favorite game: BINGO!

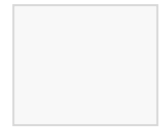

DRIVING TO THE DINER

On the road again to our June resident's choice lunch outing, Mel's Diner! Many laughs, good food, and great company.

Our gang enjoyed themselves!
