RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Ms. Betty D.

We are honored to recognize Ms. Betty as our Resident of the Month of August! Ms. Betty is 97 years young and continues to inspire us all with her grace, warmth, and vibrant spirit. She brings joy to everyone she encounters with her kind heart, quick wit, and timeless wisdom.

A true treasure within our community, Ms. Betty enjoys sharing stories from her incredible life, and has taught us so much! Congratulations, Ms. Betty on being named our Employee of the Month!

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Ms. Delia Lorden

We are very proud to recognize Ms. Delia Lorden Dietary Manager here at The Vermilion.

She is an integral part of our community, consistently going above and beyond to ensure that our residents enjoy nutritious, delicious meals served with care and a smile. Her dedication to excellence in dining services, her warm personality, and her ability to lead with both heart and professionalism have made her a beloved member of The Vermilion family.

Congratulations, Ms. Delia!

THANKS FOR THE VISIT, VERMILION CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL!

This month, a few high schools made a trip over to The Vermilion to pay us a visit! The seniors at Vermilion Catholic High School came out and played Pokeno with our residents. Thanks to all who came and enjoyed the day with us!

THANKS FOR THE VISIT, BOBCATS!

This month, students from Erath High School paid a visit to the Residents at The Vermilion. The excited group spent their time playing Pokeno, laughing, getting rallied up for the upcoming football season, and even met some new feathered friends!

WE'RE TEAMING UP!

We had a fantastic evening, welcoming The Vermilion Chamber of Commerce to our festivities. The evening was filled with live entertainment, great conversations, and goodie gave-aways! A huge thanks to all in attendance and to who made the night a success!
